

Lee provides silver lining in dark season for Lady Chargers

Contributed by Antoine Bell
Tuesday, 02 March 2010
Last Updated Tuesday, 02 March 2010

In a season that saw the Lady Chargers struggle to a 4-20 finish, junior guard Candace Lee provided a ray of sunshine by being voted first team All-Gulf South Conference in the East Division. Lee led the Lady Chargers in scoring this season with 10.7 points per game. She also led the team and was fourth in the GSC in assists averaging 3.96 per game. Lee also led the GSC in three-point fieldgoal percentage (.456).