

Local product signs with Chargers

Contributed by Antoine Bell
Monday, 10 May 2010
Last Updated Monday, 10 May 2010

Former Grissom High standout Taylor Chapman has signed to play for the UAH Chargers. The 6'2", 175 pound point guard was a starter for the Tigers for four years. Chapman was named to the All-Area Tournament team his sophomore year earned All-Area team honors his junior and senior years. In addition, he was named second team All-City his junior year, and first team All-City his senior year.

Taylor was named to Huntsville Times Honorable Mention Elite Basketball team in 2010. He was named finalist for the Wendy's Heisman Award for Grissom High School this year. Taylor led his team scoring last season, averaging 14 points per game, shooting nearly 39% 3pt FG and 87% free throw percentage.