

Lawson returns to All-America team one more time

Contributed by Antoine Bell
Wednesday, 09 June 2010
Last Updated Wednesday, 09 June 2010

Senior designated player Beth Lawson captured one final honor in her final season as a Charger, earning a spot on the 2010 Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America team for the season consecutive season. Lawson made the second team after earning first team honors last season.

This season, Lawson led the Chargers on offense batting .366 with 12 home runs, 10 doubles and 42 RBI. She finished her career at UAH ranked second all-time in career batting average (.387) and home runs (48). She broke the school record for career slugging percentage (.778) and was third all-time in walks with 101.